

Daylily March 17, 2018

Paul Owen is speaker, hostas

Lily is a new member. Vicky Matlock guest from Union county master gardeners.

Nancy Moore's husband had an intestinal blockage, was in hospital for 2 1/2 days.

Ralph manages website. Take a look at "members only" to see updates. Also see members photo to identify members.

Thanks to Ann & Jennifer for making food.

Sign up sheet to Blue Ridge Daylily trip on July the 7th, deadline by May 1st. $15 per person, $25 per couple, lunch included. It's the highest garden in NC peak season is at this time.

Need someone to do classification for show June 16th. Need to be computer savvy. Show will be called North Carolina Gems. Design sections will be announced later. Committees were discussed.

Tom will do plant sales & sign placement. Need help with photo contest. All should help with set up. Jennifer will do clerking but will need help. Mitchell will take care of refreshments for the judges. We are having a hard time getting judges, we may have 6 including Mitchell. Mitchell is teaching Judging 1 next week. Please see him.

Reminders: Pot up recent daylilies from 2014 & forward for silent auction. Bare root older daylilies for sale table. Don't forget to bring something for National Basket so we can win $1,000 of daylilies. Theme something from NC.

April meeting at John and Ann's house in Matthews, bring a potluck dish.

We are working on developing program for next year. Any suggestions welcome. Need to work further in advance. Two we choose were already booked for next year.

Welcome Paul Owen speaker, Hybridizing 101, Sex in the Garden. Hybridizes more than daylilies.
